DMRC to assist in Aqua Line extension

Noida: After two failed tendering processes to attract a suitable bidder, the Noida Metro on Friday signed an agreement with Delhi Metro Rail Corporation (DMRC) under which the latter will provide technical support for the extension of the Aqua Line from Noida Sector 51 to Greater Noida Sector 2.

According to the Noida Metro officials, DMRC will handover all its documents to DMRC in the preparation of complete bid documents for various system packages, contract award process, management of system, construction and proper integration of all new line systems with the existing Aqua Line metro system.

DMRC will also provide suggestions to the Noida Metro in value engineering and cost optimisation for all work packages, along with work checking and approval of designs submitted to Noida Metro.

DMRC will be providing technical assistance to DMRC. The Aqua Line II project of the Aqua Line, this year, is a 6.8 km long extension of five elevated stations. Noida Sector 123, Sector 124, Sector 125, Sector 126 and Sector 127. DMRC is currently operating the Aqua Line from Noida Sector 51 to Greater Noida depot.

Covid effect: increase land Reschedulement Scheme

Takes News Network

Noida: In a bid to boost the real estate market amid Covid-19, the Noida Authority has decided to not increase land rates in the next fiscal. The crucial decision was taken at the Authority's board meeting on Thursday.

At the meeting, the Authority also decided to cancel land allotment if owners are found violating the lease conditions by using residential plots for commercial or any other purposes. Reschedulement schemes, which pave the way for defaulters to settle their dues with rebate, has also been extended till December 31. The Authority officials said, carries out a survey and assessment of land rates in the city as well as inflation rate in work orders issued by its departments every year end to fix the revised rates for the next financial year. During the current financial year, rates were increased.

KEY DECISIONS

Land rates same in the next fiscal. Use of residential plots for other purposes will lead to cancellation of allotment. Reschedule defaulters to settle their dues with rebate.

3 nights chatted

Bagish.jha@timesgroup.co

Gurgaon: An investigation that began with the discovery of a headless body on November 25 has led police to a 21-year-old man, who allegedly committed three murders in the three consecutive nights of November. Each of his victims was a stranger.

Mohammad Raza, 21, has been doing odd jobs since he came to Delhi in 2019, was arrested on Friday in a manhunt for days. He was a "chatterbox" which he used to make a point. He was killed by a gang of five. He could join by the "other motive". Police have other motives. Victims were an office boy, a mainstay, a pithead, a head, a home, a whom he. Raza on Saturday made a statement. He was arrested as a suspect in the input work. He was killed. He was killed.
